

HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

"I see by the papers," said Sardine Sam, "that a local fella has a dollar bill that Charlie Lindbergh carried with him when he flew his crate across the Atlantic back in '27... Yeah, an' a woman's got a handbag that had a mirror in it—she gave him the mirror so he could read his compass or somethin'."

Sardine Sam eyed me challengingly. "I was around here in them days too," he said. "I remember that young Lindbergh fella. Knowned him well, in fact. Used to chew the fat with him down at the old Ryan plant before he took off for Saint Louie that year."

"Look, Sam," I said. "Are you trying to tell me that Lindbergh carried something of yours to Paris too?"

"Darn tootin' he did. It wasn't any old dollar bill, either. Just before he clumb into his plane I took a toothpick out of my mouth and handed it to him."

"Slim," I says, "will you carry this to Paris for me?"

"Well sir, he yanked off his flying helmet and stuck that there toothpick in the lining and then put it on again... No sir, I wouldn't take $5000 for this thing."

Sam opened his wallet and withdrew one unmistakable toothpick.

I examined it reverently, then hauled out my own wallet. "Sam," I said, "did I ever tell you about this Mexican jumping bean? I wouldn't take a million dollars for it!"

Have you heard this dame who reads the weekend weather reports over a radio network?

In a throaty voice so heavy with sex appeal that it sounds like the mating call of a female moose, she says:

"Fres-no, sixty-two, cloudy."

Nuts! I can't imitate it on a typewriter but it leaves me cold... Here's a case where something can be done about the weather.

Local Boy Scouts Ready To Collect Used Clothing In Goodwill Bags

The annual Boy Scout Good Turn Day in San Diego is scheduled for Saturday, April 6 when 9000 Boy Scouts are expected to collect approximately 180,000 pounds of used or outgrown clothing for redistribution to the needy by Goodwill Industries.

Last Saturday, the Scouts distributed 75,000 Goodwill Bags to residents. Each bag has printed instructions on the outside urging householders to fill it with used, outgrown or discarded clothing.

Collections will start shortly after 9 a.m. Saturday. Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts will carry the filled bags to street-corner depots throughout the suburban areas. A fleet of 30 trucks donated by the California Trucking Association and manned by volunteer Association truck drivers, will transport the collected bags to the downtown Goodwill plant.

Volunteer college men from San Diego State fraternities will assist with the loading and unloading of the trucks.

Good Turn Day was first tried in San Diego in 1955, with less than 2000 Scouts participating in only one sector of the city. The expanded, 9000-Scout drive this year will touch nearly every San Diego suburb.

Society officials ask that local residents "please acquire the Easter Seal habit by automatically including a colorful seal on every piece of correspondence throughout the year, thus spreading the word that crippled children need our help."

No bills or follow-up cards will be sent if you do not return your seals, it was said.

Yellowtail Derby Sets New Mark For Opening Day

Although unexpected blustery weather cut opening day catches below expectations, candidates for honors in the 11th annual $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby still managed to boat 418 yellowtails to establish a new high mark for a kickoff of the junior chamber of commerce sponsored fishing classic.

Previously, anglers had been favored by little success on opening day except for 1953, when 220 yellowtails were taken on the opener.

Winner of the 17-inch portable television set hung up for the largest fish taken on opening day was Bill Sutton, National City angler who followed his wife's instructions to a T. Just before he boarded the Polaris, she told him "You'd better bring home a big one." His answer was a 25 pound 15 ounce.

Runner-up was A. F. Armstrong, Corona del Mar, who bagged a 24-15 from the Betty Lou to take a Transoceanic radio. Other prize winners included Ben Brock, a one-armed angler from Norwalk, who decked a 24-4 and Jack M. Watson, Paramount, who landed a 23-15.

The opening day catch brought the season's take to 14,692 yellowtails, a figure not reached last year until July 6.

PTA Begins Advance Ticket Sale For Annual Expo & County Fair

Approximately 200 Parent-Teacher Assn. units throughout San Diego County this week began the sale of advance tickets for the 18th annual Southern California Exposition & County Fair at Del Mar, June 28 through July 7.

Adult tickets are 50c, a saving of 50c over the front-gate admission price to be in effect during the Exposition, said Mrs. Lloyd W. Lewis, president of the Ninth District, Parent-Teacher Assn.

Children's tickets also are available. They sell for 25 cents. A portion of the proceeds from the sale will go to participating units and the San Diego Children's Dental Center.

Mrs. Lawrence Hoskins, project chairman, said the PTA sold nearly 15,000 adult tickets last year.

A single-gate admission policy at the Exposition makes it possible for visitors to enjoy everything on the grounds without gate charges. This includes the 43-acre outdoor flower gardens, the stock show, national horse show, and grandstand attractions including a major ice show, "China Doll Revue" and Polack Bros. three-ring circus.

The Mothers Guild of Sacred Heart Academy has changed its meeting date to the second Monday of the month, so their next meeting will be on Monday, April 8 at 7:45 p.m. in the parish auditorium.

The speaker will be Harry Masters, chief, warden service, who will speak on Civil Defense. His topic is "Why Evacuation?"

All mothers who have children attending Sacred Heart Academy are asked to attend this important meeting "as it is extremely necessary to be informed on evacuating our children from school in case of an emergency."
